MEDIA RELEASE

Stolen Vehicle, Firearm Recovered after Cunupia Robbery

Quick action from Central Division Task Force officers led to the arrest of a robbery suspect, the recovery of a stolen vehicle and the seizure of a firearm yesterday.

According to reports, around 3:30 pm on Sunday 19th May, 2024, officers received a broadcast of a robbery that occurred in Soogrim Street, Cunupia, where the victim who was driving a black Honda Vezel vehicle was held at gunpoint by several armed men. The vehicle was stolen and the armed men fled the scene. The vehicle was tracked by PC Barclay and PC Marchan of the CDTF Area North, via GPS to the Southern Main Road, Cunupia. When police intercepted the vehicle, one suspect pointed a firearm at the officers, who opened fire and neutralized the threat. One pistol was seized, the stolen vehicle was recovered and the suspect was taken to the Chaguanas Health Facility to seek medical attention.

Enquiries are continuing.
