Chaguanas Man Granted $15,000 Bail for Resisting Arrest, Disorderly Conduct

A 27-year-old man was granted $15,000 bail by a Justice of the Peace after being charged for a series of offences arising out of an incident yesterday.

ASHMEED ALI, of Petersfield Main Road, Chaguanas, was arrested and charged on January 20th, by WPC Achalal, of the Chaguanas Municipal Police for unlawful pitch of a stall, willful obstruction, resisting arrest, and disorderly behaviour.

Around 2 pm yesterday, a party of officers attached to the Chaguanas Municipal Police, were patrolling the Chaguanas Main Road, in the vicinity of Church's Chicken, when they observed a man obstructing the passage of vehicles along the roadway with a cart with music equipment mounted upon it.

Officers approached the man and told him of their observations following which he allegedly became irritated and started behaving in a disorderly manner.

The man then allegedly began pointing his fingers in the faces of the officers and hurling indirect threats to them.

An attempt was subsequently made to arrest the man however he began resisting.

Officers soon subdued the man and conveyed him to the Chaguanas Municipal Police Station where he was charged for the offences.
