MEDIA RELEASE

Vendor Fined $400 for Disorderly Conduct and using Annoying Language

A 28-year-old vendor of Sangre Grande was fined $400 for disorderly conduct and using annoying language.

BRANDON OTTLEY, of Upper Cunapo, Coalmine, Sangre Grande, was fined by Magistrate Sarah De Silva at the Sangre Grande Magistrates' Court today, having pleaded guilty to the offences which stemmed from an incident yesterday.

WPC James along with other officers of the Sangre Grande Municipal Police Station were on mobile patrol when, in the vicinity of the Eric Taylor Park Sangre Grande, she observed a man displaying disorderly conduct. When she approached the man and told him of the offence he was committing, he continued behaving disorderly and challenged the officers to arrest him.

He was subsequently arrested and charged by WPC James.
