Three Held, Pistol, Ammo and Camouflage Clothing Seized in WD

Operational units continue in their dedicated efforts to take illegal firearms off the streets, with the arrest of three persons and the seizure of a pistol, a firearm component, two magazines, and quantities of ammunition and camouflage clothing in the Western Division (WD), yesterday.

The seizures and arrests occurred when officers of the Western Division Task Force and the Canine Unit conducted an anti-crime exercise in the Diego Martin district, between 2 am and 7 am, on Thursday 26th May, 2022.

During the exercise, officers executed a search warrant at the Richplain Road home of two suspects. The search resulted in officers finding one P80 pistol, the ammunition, the firearm component, a suspected TTPS tactical uniform and five articles of camouflage clothing. The two suspects who were at the house at the time of the exercise were arrested in connection with the finds.

The same party of officers then proceeded to Lanse Mitran Road, Carenage, where they found one article of camouflage clothing at the home of a male suspect.

The exercise was spearheaded by Snr. Supt. (Ag.) Remy, Supt. Henry, ASP Brown and supervised by Sgt. (Ag.) Carmona and Cpl (Ag.) Khan, all of the WD.
