MEDIA RELEASE

Nine Arrested, Illegal Firearms and Ammunition Seized During Anti-Crime Operation in San Fernando

A targeted anti-crime operation conducted by officers of the San Fernando Police District on Thursday 7th August, 2025, has led to the arrest of nine individuals and the seizure of multiple illegal firearms, ammunition, and suspected stolen property.

The operation, which took place between 2:00 pm and 6:00 pm, was led by Senior Superintendent Simon, Superintendent Jaikaran, ASP Ramsaran, and Inspector Maharaj, and was supervised by Sergeant Nandlal, Ag/Sgt Seecharan, and Ag/Cpl Huggins. Officers from the San Fernando Enquiry Staff and the Southern Division Task Force were also involved.

The exercise focused on high-crime areas, targeting priority offenders, frequently stolen vehicles, and gathering critical intelligence in relation to an ongoing robbery/murder investigation.

During the operation three vehicles were intercepted and searched based on intelligence and surveillance and the following items were seized

- One black pistol with an extended magazine and ten (10) rounds of 9mm ammunition
- One shotgun and three (3) 12-gauge cartridges
- One extended magazine with fifteen (15) rounds of 9mm ammunition
