MEDIA RELEASE

Tobago Roti Shop Robber Caught, Cash, Card Recovered

A swift response from Crown Point Police Station officers led to the arrest of a robbery suspect and the recovery of a quantity of cash, allegedly stolen from a roti shop yesterday, in Crown Point, Tobago.

According to police reports, around 9:30 am yesterday, a businessman placed a green side bag containing cash and other valuables on the counter next to the cash register. A male customer then entered the Milford Road, Crown Point, roti shop, requested a roti, and the business man went to prepare it. Upon returning, the customer threatened the businessman with an object and demanded the bag. The customer took the bag containing $5,000 TT cash, $27 USD cash, along with various identification, bank cards and receipts, then fled the scene.

Officers from the Crown Point Police Station responded to the report and conducted an extensive search of the area. A green bag containing receipts, the victim's driver's permit, and national identification card was recovered. Based on the investigation, a 40-year-old labourer, was arrested at Pigeon Point Beach. When the officers searched the vicinity, they discovered a grey bag belonging to the suspect, which contained a quantity of cash and a bank card belonging to the businessman.

Investigations are ongoing.
