An anti-crime operation in the North Central and Northern Divisions led to the discovery of camouflage, cannabis, firearm and ammunition.

Between 2:00 PM and 6:00 PM on Saturday, March 16, 2025, officers of the Special Response Unit (SRU), acting on intelligence, proceeded to Dump Road, Arima. A search of the area led to the discovery of a black bag hidden among a heap of debris on the southern side. Inside, officers found a military camouflage pants concealing twenty-two (22) rounds of 7.62mm ammunition.

Further searches across the North Central and Northern Divisions resulted in the seizure of 150 grams of marijuana and associated paraphernalia.

The operation was spearheaded by ACP Tactical Hazel and coordinated by Supt. Robain, with support from officers of the North Central and Northern Divisions.

In another incident, on Sunday, March 17, 2025, at approximately 9:00 PM, while conducting patrols along Macoya Settlement Road, Macoya, a team of officers observed a group of men gathered in a dimly lit area. As the marked police vehicle approached, the men dispersed in different directions, raising officers' suspicion.
