MEDIA RELEASE

Man, 36, Charged with Repeatedly Assaulting Woman

A 36-year-old man, who appeared virtually before the Sangre Grande Magistrates' Court on Monday charged with a series of offences against a woman, was granted $350,000 bail with a surety.

The accused, who resides in Sangre Grande, was also ordered to stay 100 meters away from the woman and have absolutely no contact with her as part of his bail conditions set by Magistrate Cheron Raphael.

He is expected to reappear in court on March 14th, 2022.

The suspect was charged on February 12th by WPC Farrier, of the Gender-Based-Violence Unit, with assault by beating, throwing missiles, assault by threats, possession of a weapon with intent, assault occasioning a wound and choking with intent to render unconscious.

The charges stem from a police report, on December 25th, 2021 where it is alleged a man became enraged, allegedly arming himself with several glass bottles which he threw at the woman and proceeded to assault her.

A similar incident is said to have occurred on February 5th, 2022.

Investigations were supervised by W/Superintendent of Police (Ag.) Claire Guy-Alleyne and W/Insp Bacchus Francis of the Gender Based Violence Unit which ended with the suspect being arrested on February 11th and charged on February 12th.
