MEDIA RELEASE

Supervisor Granted $20000 Bail Assault and Breach of Protection Order

A 49-year-old Supervisor from Tobago, was granted bail in the sum of $20,000.00, when he appeared before Magistrate, Her Worship Indra Ramoo-Haynes at the Tunapuna Magistrate Court on Monday 29th January, 2024, to answer to charges of Assault by Beating and Breach of Protection Order.

He is expected to reappear before a Magistrate on May 20th, 2024.

It was reported that on January 25th, 2024, around 8:30 pm, the victim and the defendant were at home in Tunapuna when he started beating their two children with a leather belt, accusing them of stealing money from his wallet.

The victim made attempts to stop the defendant, in the process she received a blow to her back from the leather belt. An argument ensued between the victim and the defendant when he began beating her with the belt. The victim in company with her children went to the Tunapuna Police Station, where a report was made and a Protection Order issued.

The defendant was arrested on the same day and subsequently charged on the following day.
