MEDIA RELEASE

Man Arrested – Guns, Ammunition, Narcotics, Seized in Valsayn

A 33-year-old Valsayn man is currently assisting police with their investigations into the discovery and seizure of a quantity of guns, ammunition and narcotics yesterday.

The seizure and arrest were the result of an intelligence-led Operation Strike Back Three exercise executed by officers attached to the Northern Division Task Force West (NDTFW).

During the early hours of April 14th, officers swooped down on the suspect's Real Spring, Valsayn home, where they executed a search warrant.

The officers allegedly discovered four nine millimeter pistols, four extended magazines and 4.4 kilogrammes of marijuana.

The suspect, who is self-employed, was immediately arrested.

The operation was led by Sgt La Pierre, Cpls Forde and Superville, and included PCs John, Gooding and Alexander, Tunapuna Warrants Section and the Canine Unit.

PC Persad is continuing investigations.
