MEDIA RELEASE

Caller Charged after Threatening the Lives of the President, PM

A Princes Town man who allegedly threatened the lives of the President and Prime Minister via telephone is due to appear at the Princes Town Magistrates' Court on Thursday 15th July 2021.

VINU DALLSINGH, 65, was charged with the offence of misuse of telephone facilities on Friday 9th July, 2021.

On Thursday 6th May, 2021, the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service Emergency 999 Command Centre, St. James received a call, during which the caller made inappropriate statements, where he threatened the lives of the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago and the Prime Minister.

A report was subsequently made to the C.I.D. Port of Spain Reports Office, the investigator PC Lewis conducted intensive investigative efforts. The investigation required collaboration with internal personnel from RAU, E999, Cyber Crime Unit, C.I.D. POS, and the assistance of external agencies, which led to the identification of the caller.

PC Lewis continued his investigative efforts, sought advice from the CID Legal Team on the matter and on Friday 9th July, 2021, laid a complaint for the offence of misuse of telephone facilities against the accused before the Princes Town Magistrate's Court.
