MEDIA RELEASE

ND Officers Seize Rifle, Ammo, Police Apparel

Northern Division officers arrested four individuals and seized a firearm, a quantity of ammunition, and police apparel, during an exercise conducted in the division earlier this week.

Between 4 pm and 7 pm on March 12th, 2024, officers of Maloney CID, Cumuto CID, Northern Division Emergency Response Patrol, and the Northern Division Task Force, along with the K9 unit, conducted a Search Warrant exercise in the Maloney police district. During the exercise, four search warrants were executed at two Ali Jhan Lane, Piarco Old Road residences, and at Helen Street, Red Hill, D'Abadie, and Piarco Old Road South locations.

Officers recovered one assault rifle with 17 rounds of 5.56 ammunition, a magazine, and a collection of police apparel. The items were seized and packaged, and three men, aged 21, 23, and 28, from the D'Abadie area and one woman, aged 18, from Arima, were arrested in connection with the find. PC Salina is continuing enquiries.

This exercise was conducted under the supervision of Snr. Supt. Montrichard, Supt. Carthy, Asp. Pitt, Insp. Mascall and Insp. Alleyne.
