MEDIA RELEASE

Two Firearms Seized, Vehicle Recovered

Police seized two firearms and recovered a stolen vehicle during anti-crime exercises conducted in the Western and South Western Divisions, yesterday.

Between 2 pm and 5 pm on 25th July, 2024, officers of the Western Division Task Force conducted an anti-crime exercise in the Diego Martin area. Acting on intelligence, the officers proceeded to Temperance Drive, Bagatelle Road, where they searched a rubbish heap and discovered a Luger Pistol, loaded with six rounds of 9mm ammunition. The item was seized for further processing.

Additionally, the officers received information and proceeded to Sea Trace, Bagatelle, where they recovered a white Toyota Aqua, which was reported stolen earlier that day.

Meanwhile, officers of the South Western Gang Unit and Penal Police Station conducted an exercise between 11 am and 1 pm in the Penal district. Acting on information, a party of officers proceeded to Goodman Trace, Rock Road, Penal, where they searched a bushy area off the roadway. There, they discovered a blue garbage bag containing a shotgun. The item was seized for further processing.

Enquiries are continuing into these matters.
