$100K in Marijuana Destroyed by Toco Police

Sixty grown marijuana trees and 30 seedlings, with an estimated street value of $100,000, were destroyed last Saturday by officers of the Toco Police Station.

According to police reports, at 1 pm on June 17th, 2023, Toco police officers received information relative to the cultivation of cannabis in the district.

The officers later proceeded into a roadway off the Toco Main Road, Toco, where they observed a quantity of fully grown cannabis plants and seedlings planted in an open lot of land.

A surveillance exercise continued in the vicinity of the discovery, however, after a considerable amount of time, no one was seen.

The plants and seedlings were then destroyed.

Investigations remain active.
