MEDIA RELEASE

13 Arrested, Firearm and Drugs Seized in Southern Division

Thirteen persons were arrested, a firearm, a quantity of marijuana, and cocaine were seized during exercises in Southern Division, yesterday.

The anti-crime exercises were coordinated by Snr Supt Ramphal, Asp Phillip and directly supervised by Insp Ramlogan, Sgts Joseph and Mason, W/Cpl Plenty, and included officers of the Southern Division Task Force and K-9 Branch. Three persons were arrested, two for cocaine possession and one for possession of marijuana in Princes Town. Officers also found a firearm in a bushy area in the same village.

During exercises in Barrackpore officers arrested a 52-year-old man for being in possession of ammunition and eight men were also arrested for affiliation warrants in the division.

Investigations are ongoing.
