MEDIA RELEASE

4 Beetham Men Arrested, 2 Guns, Ammo Recovered

Inter-Agency Task Force arrests four men in connection with a gun find earlier this morning.

Around 5.10 am officers were conducting surveillance along the Maritime Overpass, Morvant, where they had cause to intercept a vehicle with four occupants.

A search was conducted of the vehicle and occupants. During the search, the officers allegedly discovered one silver revolver with a brown wooden butt which contained five rounds of nine-millimetre ammunition. They also discovered; a quantity of jewellery in the pants of a suspect. Officers also seized the cellular phones.

The men were arrested and taken to the San Juan Police Station where they were handed over together with their cellular phones a PSP handheld game and a quantity of jewellery for safekeeping. The vehicle, firearm and ammunition are being processed for evidence.

During the previous exercise, officers received information which led them to Comprehensive Road, Malick, Barataria where a search was made of an area where three rubbish bins were on the roadway.

During the search, officers discovered one Black Tec Nine submachine gun which contained a magazine with three rounds of nine-millimetre ammunition.

Investigations are continuing into the discoveries.
