MEDIA RELEASE

Jamaican Granted $60,000 Bail for Cruelty to a child

A 42- year old Jamaican man was granted $60,000 bail with a surety when he appeared virtually before a Scarborough Magistrate on Monday 22nd February, 2021 charged with cruelty to a child.

The accused who lives at Dutch Fort, Scarborough, Tobago, was granted bail by Magistrate Jo-Anne Connor.

He was charged on Saturday with one count of cruelty to a child by WPC Trim of the Tobago Division of the Child Protection Unit (CPU). The charge was laid after WPC Trim, investigated a report made to the police by a 12-year-old, that he was allegedly beaten by a man.

The accused was also ordered to have no communication with the child. He will reappear before the court on Monday 22nd March, 2021.

The investigations were supervised by W/Supt(Ag) Claire Guy-Alleyne, Sgt. Millie and Ag. Cpl Clarke.
