MEDIA RELEASE

One Arrested, Firearm Seized -WD

An anti-crime operation conducted by the Western Division Task Force resulted in the seizure of a firearm yesterday.

On October 8, 2024, officers executed a search warrant for firearms and ammunition at the home of a 22-year-old man in Powder Magazine, Phase 1, Cocorite. During the search of the apartment, they discovered an Omni Hybrid Multi-Caliber firearm and a holster on a three-seater couch in the living room. Two men were arrested in connection with the findings.

This operation was sanctioned by Senior Superintendent Henry and coordinated by Superintendent Williams, Inspector Grant, and Acting Sgt. Dominique, with support from members of the Western Division Task Force. PC McClean is continuing the investigation.
