MEDIA RELEASE

NED Officers Net Firearm, Ammunition and Narcotics

North-Eastern Division officers are pleading with anyone with information that can lead to the arrest of the suspects involved in the seizure of one firearm, two magazines, 25 rounds of 9mm ammunition, 1.7 kilogrammes of marijuana, and camouflage attire to contact them immediately.

This follows a crime suppression exercise on Thursday 14th May, 2020, in the Aranguez district which resulted in the seizure by officers of the North-Eastern Division Task Force (NEDTF).

The illicit items were found during the execution of several search warrants in the Mt. Lambert Circular Road area. The seized narcotics has an estimated value of TT$20,000.

The exercise was spearheaded by Snr. Supt. Phillip, W/Supt. Maynard-Wilson and Supt. Alexander, coordinated by Sgt (Ag.), Martin and supervised by Cpl (Ag.), Majeed of the NEDTF.

Anyone with information that can bolster the officers' investigations to lead to the arrest of the suspects in this case is strongly urged to contact the NEDTF at 675-3338, or the police at 999, 555, or text/WhatsApp 482-GARY or report anonymously by calling CRIME STOPPERS at 800-TIPS or via the TTPS Mobile App.
