MEDIA RELEASE

$100K Bail for Businessman Charged with Indecent Assault

A 52-year-old businessman was granted bail in the sum of $100,000 with surety of $20,000 Cash Alternative by Her Worship Christine Charles on 19th September, 2023.

The accused appeared at the Scarborough Magistrates' Court, after he was charged with three counts of Indecent Assault. The accused was also ordered not to contact the victim and shall report to the Shirvan Road Police Station once per week.

The matter was adjourned to October 16th 2023.

Police reports indicate that around 9:45 am on Tuesday 15th August 2023, a woman was travelling in a vehicle, driven by a man whom she had recently met. The man allegedly held onto the woman's hand and rubbed it against his private parts, then touched her inappropriately about her body. A report was made to the Shirvan Police Station on the same day.

Detectives of the Special Victims Department launched an investigation, which led to the arrest of a man on Wednesday 14th September, who was formally charged on Thursday 15th September, 2023.

The matter was investigated by WPC Clarke and supervised by Supt Claire Guy-Alleyne and Inspector Miller.
