MEDIA RELEASE

Sangre Grande Man, 39, Fined $30K for Revolver, Ammo Possession

A 39-year-old man, who pleaded guilty to firearm and ammunition charges at the Sangre Grande Magistrates' Court today, was fined $30,000.

ALEXIS WILLIAMS, also known as 'Bean,' unemployed, of North Oropouche Road via Sangre Grande, pleaded guilty to the charges of Possession of a Trooper MK III 357 Magnum Revolver and Possession of six Rounds of .38 spl Ammunition, and was fined $15,000 for each offence by Magistrate Cheron Raphael.

In default of the payment of the fines, WILLIAMS would be imprisoned for three years hard labour.

He was allowed nine months to pay the fines.

According to police reports, during the period 4 am and 8 am on August 23rd, officers attached to the Eastern Division Task Force (EDTF) were conducting several raids of drug blocks and areas known for criminal activities which led them to the North Oropouche Road, Sangre Grande home of the suspect.

Upon arrival, EDTF officers executed a search warrant where they found a firearm and a quantity of ammunition.

The suspect was immediately arrested in connection with the find.

The operation was coordinated by Sgt Bhim and supervised by PC Hosein.

PC Verasammy laid the charges in the matter.
