A 43-year-old labourer was granted bail with a surety in the sum of $300,000 when he appeared before Magistrate Adrian Darmanie at the Chaguanas Magistrates' Court on Monday 30th January, after he was charged with Sexual Touching of a 11-year old girl.

As part of the bail condition, the accused must not have contact with the victim, stay at least 400m from the victim and must report one day a month to a police station.

He is expected to reappear in court on 1st March, 2023.

Police reports stated that on 17th July, 2021 a girl was at home in her bedroom, when she was allegedly inappropriately touched by her step father. The victim informed her mother, who subsequently made a report to the Longdenville Police Post.
