MEDIA RELEASE

Man arrested, all items recovered after barbershop break-in NICHOLAS ALI, alias “Chur-Bur, a 33-year-old man from Teelucksingh Street, East California was arrested and charged after breaking into a Couva barber shop.

He was scheduled to appear virtually at the Couva Magistrates’ Court today.

The owner of the barbershop, located at the corner of Southern Main Road and Teelucksingh Street, secured the shop on Sunday 13th September, 2020 at around 2pm. He returned the following day around 9am to open the business and observed the metal gate at the entrance pried open and the glass door fully opened. The entire shop had been ransacked and ten hair trimmers, one soldering iron, screwdrivers and several hair combs valued at approximately $5,800, missing.

Investigations were supervised by Ag Sgt Badree and conducted by PCs Meah and Flemming. It led to the arrest of the suspect and the recovery of all the items that had been taken.
