Two coordinated anti-crime operations were conducted in the Arouca and La Horquetta districts on Friday 10th October, 2025, resulting in the seizure of a firearm and ammunition, the recovery of a stolen vehicle, and multiple arrests.

Between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m., officers conducted a roving stop and search exercise in the Arouca district. The operation involved roving roadblocks, stop and search exercises, and targeted checks aimed at deterring and detecting criminal activity.

Further checks confirmed the vehicle had been reported stolen in the Malabar District, Northern Division. It was towed to the Arouca Police Station for further investigation and processing by the Crime Scene Unit.

The operation was spearheaded by ACP Singh, Snr Supt Gift, Supt Jaggernaut, and included officers from the Arouca Charge Room.

Officers executed several house search warrants, resulting in the discovery of one Smith & Wesson pistol, along with one magazine and three rounds of .40 calibre ammunition, at a residence on Sonny Ramdin Avenue, Phase 1, La Horquetta. A warrant is expected to be issued in connection with this seizure.
