MEDIA RELEASE

$12.75 million worth of Marijuana Destroyed in Moruga

Police discovered a quantity of marijuana trees and marijuana seedlings with a street value of $12.75 million, during a marijuana eradication exercise conducted in the Moruga district on Wednesday 28th October, 2020.

During the exercise officers proceeded approximately three miles into the La Lune forest where they discovered, and subsequently destroyed four marijuana fields with approximately 600 marijuana trees and one seedling bed, cultivated on approximately three and a half lots of land. The officers also located and destroyed two camps which contained 500 kilogrammes of cured marijuana. No arrests were made so far in connection with this find.

The exercise was coordinated by Snr Supt Yusuff Gaffar, Supt Nobbee and included officers of the Special Intelligence Unit (SIU), Southern Division Task Force, the Air Support Unit and the Trinidad and Tobago Regiment.

Investigations are continuing.
