MEDIA RELEASE

Woman Among 2 Held with Fake Gun, Ammo in La Romaine

A 19-year-old woman and an 18-year-old man who were allegedly caught with a toy gun and ammunition last night are currently being interrogated by San Fernando detectives.

Police are presently searching for another man who was the driver of the Toyota Axio motor vehicle in which all three were occupants.

According to police reports, at 7.25 pm on October 15th, police officers were patrolling Southern Main Road, La Romaine, when they conducted a routine traffic stop of a silver Toyota Axio motor vehicle.

Upon stopping the vehicle, police officers observed an individual exit the driver's side who fled into nearby bushes.

The other two occupants were removed from the vehicle which was later searched by the police officers.

During the search, police allegedly found beneath the front passenger seat one Glock Pistol magazine containing five rounds of nine millimetre ammunition and a black toy pistol.

The woman and the man were arrested and conveyed to the San Fernando Police Station pending further enquiries.

Checks were also made for the driver which proved futile.

PC Williams is leading investigations.
