Two Arrested – Electronics, Jewellery, Accessories Recovered

The North-Eastern Division (NED) Gang Unit and the NED Operations Team detained two men suspected of house breaking and larceny during an anti-crime exercise yesterday.

Acting on information received, the officers proceeded to the home of the mother one of the suspects, located at Coconut Drive, Morvant. The officers then took the 20-year-old man to his Cicada Street, Morvant home, where they executed a search warrant.

During the search, the officers allegedly discovered on the premises, a Nokia cellphone and Guess wristwatch which were among two of the items reported stolen during the house breaking.

The officers then proceeded to the home of the second suspect, a 23-year-old man of Romain Lands, Morvant. Once there, they executed a search warrant.

The officers allegedly found the man sporting a diamond silver bracelet on his hand, also a Movado wristwatch and they found a PS4 console on the premises, all items reported stolen.

The men are suspected of breaking into the home of the victim of Poolside, Maracas, St. Joseph, on January 15th.

Both men have been arrested.

WPC John is continuing investigations.
