PM, CoP and BPTT Executives Kick Off Football Tournament

The Friends and Family Community Group hosted the BPTT Carenage All-Star Football Tournament on Saturday 6th October 2019 in Carenage.

Prime Minister, the Honourable Dr. Keith Rowley who is also the MP for the area attended the event with Commissioner of Police Gary Griffith, and the executive of BPTT kicked the first ball of the tournament.

Commissioner Griffith was pleased to be a part of this initiative which is held annually and seeks to encourage positive youth and community development through the sport of football, this is also in keeping with the TTPS' thrust toward fostering a deeper relationship between the police and communities.

Over 700 persons from the community came out to show their support.
