MEDIA RELEASE

$250k Bail for Sangre Grande Woman Charged with Larceny

A 48-year-old woman was granted bail in the sum of $250,000 with a surety, by Justice of the Peace Ibrahim Ali on 8th March, after she was charged with three counts of Larceny.

The accused is expected to appear in court on 4th April, 2023.

LINDAY ANN JULIEN ALLAN, of Sangre Grande, was arrested on 6th March and subsequently charged 8th March.

According to police reports, during the period 10th May, 2022 and 28th July 2022, the accused allegedly received the sums of $88,000, $79,000 and $50,000 cash from victims, which represented full payments towards the purchase and delivery of several motor vehicles from a credit union. The suspect allegedly led the victims to believe that she was in a position to obtain repossessed motor vehicles from a credit union and deliver same to them.

It was later discovered that the suspect was never in a position to do so, and efforts made by the victims to obtain a refund of their monies from the accused proved futile.

The matter was reported to the Fraud Squad and investigations were conducted, which led to the arrest of Julien Allan, who was later charged with three counts of Larceny.

Investigations were conducted by Ag. Corporal Dubois, with supervision by Senior Superintendent Arlet Groome, Superintendent Reuben, ASP Lutchman, Inspector David, and Sergeants Bassarath and Kissoon.
