MEDIA RELEASE

Warehouse Owner Arrested, Firearm, Ammo, Marijuana Seized

Central Division officers arrested one man, seized a firearm and a quantity of ammunition and several high-grade marijuana trees, during an exercise yesterday.

Officers of the Central Division Task Force (CDTF), Area South, conducted an intelligence-led exercise between 2 pm and 7 pm on March 6th, 2024. The party of officers proceeded to a warehouse located at Ramsingh Street, Cunupia, where a search warrant was executed.

The search unearthed one Glock 19 Pistol, fitted with a Rooney Accessory and 27 rounds of ammunition and 50 high-grade marijuana trees, with an estimated street value of TT$300,000.

The items were seized and the 35-year-old owner/occupier of the property was arrested and conveyed to the Couva Police Station. PC Dass is continuing enquiries.

This exercise was coordinated by Snr. Supt. Simon, Supt. Gyan, ASP Ablacksingh and carried out by members of the Central Division Task Force, Area South, led by Supt. Baird, Sgt. Persad and PC Carter.
